How to Access the GALILEO Password

To access the databases in GALILEO on and off-campus, you will need the current GALILEO password. The password changes three times a year. You may access the current password anytime online by visiting gil.asurams.edu.

Instructions on How to Access the GALILEO Password

1. Click “Guest” in top right corner.

2. Click “Sign In”.

3. Select “ASU Students, Faculty & Staff”.

4. Login with your ASU credentials (network ID and password).
   1. If you are unsure of your ASU credentials visit idlookup.asurams.edu and/or contact the ITS Helpdesk at 229-430-4909 for assistance.
   2. Do not include the @asurams.edu or @students.asurams.edu.

5. Once you login, your name should appear in the top right corner.
6. Click your name in the top right corner.
   - Note: If your name does not appear, please contact the ASU Libraries at 229-430-4799.

7. Click “My Library Account”.

8. You will be taken to your library account.

   The Galileo password will appear here.

For questions or assistance, please call 229-430-4805 or 229-317-6766, email circulation@asurams.edu, or visit one of Circulation Desks at the ASU Libraries at Pendergrast Library – Radium Springs Campus (2nd floor) or Harold B. Wetherbee Library – Gillionville Campus (1st floor).

NEW! Visit https://www.asurams.edu/academic-affairs/library-home/ or libguides.asurams.edu to chat with a librarian.